Annex

Note verbale dated 12 August 2004 from the United States Mission to the United Nations

The United States Mission to the United Nations presents its compliments to the United Nations Secretariat and has the honour to inform the latter that restrictions on travel beyond the five boroughs of New York City for Iraqi nationals employed by the United Nations and their dependants are hereby lifted. Similar restrictions on the members of the Permanent Mission of Iraq to the United Nations are also lifted.

Iraqi nationals employed by the United Nations Secretariat and their families are no longer required to seek permission to travel or to notify the United States Mission of personal or United Nations-related travel beyond the five boroughs of New York City.
